Foreword

French Arts Factory is an unusual gallery. The artists it represents, each with special know-how, are focused on materials. They are ceramists, glass artists, sculptors of paper and of carton; they are marquetry inlayers working with straw, tapestry artists, calligraphers. They will take turns amazing you.

What do they have in common? Mastery of the material that serves contemporary Art.

Whether inspired by glass, earth, fire, thread or paper, their creativity is infinite.

Seeing that paper is a composite, bronze is ceramic, metal is carton lace, and steel is wood is a surprising experience – and well, this is the journey the gallery offers you.

What a wonderful opportunity it is to stand in support of French talents: at French Arts Factory, we've made this our specialty.

As you'll see, the gallery's founders are always in search of that rare, special find.

We know about Fabio Deronzier that he is an inspired artist, that his work feeds on a very powerful, very creative consciousness of the space and on the human being. The gallery French Arts Factory, Parisian representative of the artist, organizes a personal exhibition of his work every half-year. In September, 2016, you can discover his work on Marines.

Elements burst out on Fabio's boats, they are rolled around, isolated, sometimes in distress but the magic of the artistic creation will make, once more, that each of us, will imagine a journey at the tragic or on the contrary triumphant issue.

Fabio Deronzier

Fabio Deronzier was born August 10, 1996 in Paris into a family of artists. When he was 3 months, his father died, he was raised by his mother, to whom he dedicates a deep admiration. It is she who will train from its infancy to the fine arts. In 2011 he began studying art in Paris and is interested in painting, photography and video art. Today he is installed in Nice in the villa Arson.

Multidisciplinary artist Fabio Deronzier remains very marked by the work of Turner, Friedrich and the Romantic philosophy, while extending the meanings in our time, through the prism of its sensitivity. It directs his work towards his favorite themes it intends to deal in all lucidity: abandonment, bewilderment, loneliness.

Nevertheless through the work of Fabio Deronzier, much more than the simple continuation of the fascinations of the 19th century, we feel resounding the concerns and can be the despairs of ours.

The gallery French Arts Factory represents Fabio Deronzier in a permanent way and dedicates him a personal exhibition every half-year. The artist besides participated in the Forum of the arts of St Malo last May, and in the collective exhibitions of galleries 361 ° of Aix-en-Provence and Agora of Salon de Provence. His works are present in private collections in France and abroad.
